

This May join Frank Nitti, his gang of gangsters, and flappers at this audience-interactive, musical-comedy revue & dinner!!

Long before 33 W. Kinzie housed one of Chicago's most famous steakhouses, it was home to the notorious enforcer of the Al Capone gang, Frank Nitti. Frank & his Wife operated a legitimate Italian food business out of the building, but it was also a convenient hideout and escape route for Nitti. Take a trip back in time to 1932 and the raucous world of gangland Chicago! Sing along to great Broadway tunes by Porter, Gershwin, and Kander and Ebb while enjoying great food, drinks, and friends! Before the show we'll check out Nitti's Vault located beneath the bar. View the secret room, the possessions discovered within it!

Adults age 45+ welcome to attend.

Nitti's Vault has been named #1 on Thrillist's list of Hidden Urban Treasures!!
